

OpenMetro weather forecasts

The weather forecasts for today is going to be very similar to today. So this is like something that had taken place in the past and now it's going to take place."

Darrell also explained he has a hard time seeing the two countries meeting in the present day.

He explained:

"I don't like to overstate it. The situation in Europe is obviously much more complicated for me. In the US, where the media, the president, and so forth really
